

PRESS RELEASE

11 th Sept. 2018:

Launch of Masanpally Digital Village Services by Prl. Sec (ITE & C) Shri Jayesh Ranjan

Shri Jayesh Ranjan Prl. Secretary, ITE & C has successfully launched the Mansanpally Digital village in Maheswarm Mandal. Digital village is established by Telangana Fiber Grid Corporation, under its pilot Technology demonstration network [TDN] and Hewlett Packard Enterprise (HPE) under its CSR initiative. Mr. Sujai Karampuri – MD, T –Fiber Grid Corporation, Mr. Keerti Melkote – President at Aruba and Mr. Sushil Bhatla – Head CSR, HPE were present during the launch.

Digital village comprises of e – Education Centre, e – Health Centre and e – Panchayat Centre. The event started with launch of e – health Center where in Mr. Jayesh Ranjan interacted with Patient and Doctor and enquired about benefits, facilities and medical equipment available at the center. Electronic Medical records of the patients were shown using cloud technology.

e – Education center at Gram Panchayat School, where the teachers explained the NDLM (National Digital Literacy Mission) program benefits reaped through the centre. Jayesh Ranjan interacted with the teacher and students and emphasised the importance of digital literacy. Later on he, spoke with Village Level entrepreneur at e- panchayat Center and enquired about various digital services like Caste certificate, Income certificate, Aadhar that were available to the local villagers. He extended warm wishes for successful operation and usage of Digital village Services.