

Dated: 01-10-2018

PRESS NOTE

Today i.e., 01-10-2018, Prisons Department of Telangana has started 3rd Batch Refresher Course” for guarding staff (Warders, Head Warders) from 01-10-2018 to 12-10-2018 at State Institute of Correctional Administration, Chanchalguda, Hyderabad.

Sri Rayi Ravi, Joint Secretary to Government, Finance Department, Telangana State inaugurated the course as Chief Guest. Sri A. Narsimha, Inspector General of Prisons, Telangana State and Sri M. Sampath, Principal, State Institute of Correctional Administration, Chanchalguda, Hyderabad and Jailors, Deputy Jailors welcomed the Chief Guest.

The training is imparted in different fields and Guest Lecturers are called from reputed institutions to improve the knowledge of the prisons guarding staff.

The chief guest Sri Rayi Ravi, Joint Secretary to Government, Finance Department, Telangana State has imparted his valuable speech and told the trainees to improve the skills in this work and should maintain discipline among prisoners and staff while performing duties. All should learn and update their knowledge in service matters, guard training and they should act as counsellors to prisoners and bring good name to the department and state and also said that where there is a work recognition will come itself. Further said Telangana Prisons Department is doing good correctional activities. By which prisoners are getting employment with in jail and also after release from Jails.

Sri A. Narsimha, Inspector General Prisons, Telangana State has asked the guarding staff to learn the skills in training and implement in the Jails after going to their institution.

Sri M. Sampath, Principal, State Institute of Correctional Administration, Chanchalguda, Hyderabad has given vote of thanks to the chief guest Sri Rayi Ravi, Joint Secretary to Government (Finance Department).

Sri V. Sampath,
Chief Drill Instructor,
State Institute of Correctional Administration,
Chanchalguda, Hyderabad